Weekend Highlights:

Beautiful scenery
Friday night campfire S'mores
Slow technical roads with hills, valleys & curves
Saturday brunch at The Charmant in LaCrosse
Saturday French-derived dinner at nearby St. Francis Hermitage
Saturday night campfire, beverages & fellowship

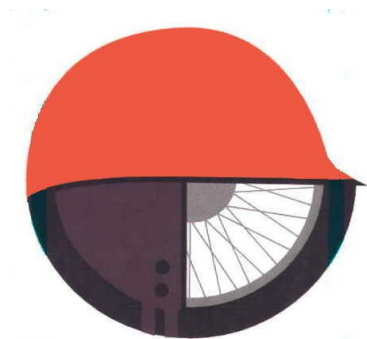

Accommodations in Soldiers Grove:

Country Gardens Motel & Lounge
(budget, only two rooms available, bar and restaurant on first floor)
608.624.3254

The Tobacco Warehouse Inn
(nicer, but quirky self-serve concept with no lobby, amenities, etc.)
TobaccoWarehouseInn.com 608.624.5999

Soldiers Grove Village Campground
First come, first serve $25 per night for water and electricity hookup
Paid at Village Hall or Mobil station. See www.villageofsoldiersgrove.org

The Old Oak Inn
Built in 1890 by a lumber baron with a penchant for craftsmanship. Experience timeless charm and warm hospitality in a Victorian setting. If we are lucky, there may be music Friday or Saturday. www.facebook.com/theoldoakinn/
